As a custom formulation laboratory, Architectural Beauty specializes in the development of skin care, color cosmetics, hair care, bath & body care, spa, over-the-counter, and baby care products. We work with clients at every stage of their growth, including startups, established corporations (including those with products sold on QVC, HSN and Shop NBC) and every size in between.

We believe that every product, every brand, and every client is unique—a belief that has led us to create a suite of services that are as distinctive as the products we formulate. We know that a cookie-cutter approach, quite simply, doesn't cut it, so we work with our individual clients in outside-the-box, highly individualized ways.
